BACKGROUND

David is a highly motivated, ambitious Advocate who strives for excellence in his work and enthusiastically encourages and support others through team-work to achieve/accomplish common objectives to the best extent possible.

He is a business law practitioner with specialization in corporate and commercial law practice, contracts, banking law and finance, securities, investment, tax, Intellectual property prosecution and enforcement, employment, and debt recovery. His experience includes assisting local and international clients, local and multinational companies in Merger & Acquisition transactions, corporate and projects financing through syndicated loans or other financing arrangements. He is involved in conducting legal due diligence and legal audit as well as advising in investment deals including private equity and other investment vehicles or structures.

He assists with incorporation of companies, corporate governance and regulatory compliance, restructuring and insolvency management. Also, he provides company secretarial services and has been a member in a number of board of directors.

He advises local and foreign clients (tax residents and non-residents) on tax compliance and advises on labour law compliance and labour/employment dispute resolution.

David assists or represents clients in court proceedings (litigation) and alternative dispute resolution (ADR) such as arbitration, conciliation, mediation and negotiation.
