BACKGROUND

Steven holds a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from the University of Rwanda (2024) and is currently pursuing a Diploma in Legal Practice at the Institute of Legal Practice and Development, alongside intellectual property training at the WIPO Academy. He began his legal career at K-Solutions & Partners, assisting local and international clients in corporate and commercial law, data protection, employment and labor law, taxation law, and intellectual property matters. Highly motivated and detail-oriented, he is committed to delivering excellence in his professional work.

Previously, Steven volunteered at the UR-Center for Legal Aid and Mediation, where he provided free legal assistance to the community, gaining practical litigation skills and firsthand experience in resolving real-world legal disputes. This role deepened his understanding of legal practice while reinforcing his dedication to service and professional growth.
